FAMILY PLANNING GUIDE

Miller Funeral Home was established in August of 1917 by Robert Judson “R.J.” Miller. Our original location was just one block away in the back of the Fountain and Chamber Dry Goods Store. R.J. was married to Mable McKissick and they had four children, Hubert, Bob, Ruth, and Elizabeth. R.J. passed away in 1928, leaving behind a legacy and passion for funeral service to his oldest son, Hubert, who took over the business with his mother at the young age of 16. They moved the funeral home to its’ present location in 1940. Hubert married Carolyn Robertson, and they had one son, Keith. Hubert worked diligently in the funeral home until 1988, when he passed away. Keith, with his mother, continued the family business.

Keith, like his fathers before him, had a passion for community service. Along with his work at the funeral home, he started Miller Ambulance Service in the late 1970s, which serviced Haralson County for almost 30 years. Keith married Tammy Muse, and they had one daughter, Mindy. After Carolyn’s death, Tammy began working at the funeral home. Mindy, following in her family’s footsteps, started working at the funeral home full time in 2013, becoming our fourth-generation funeral director. She has inherited their passion for community service, while also incorporating continuous updates to our facilities and services to better meet our family’s needs.

Miller’s has been family owned and operated for over 100 years now. We consider the families we serve members of our own family, for without them, we would not have been able to serve this community for so long. Whether you are looking for cremation or burial services or thinking about prearranging your own service, we are here to assist you in any way we can. Our commitment has been, and always will be, to give personalized, caring service to all our families.

We sincerely appreciate the opportunity you have given us to be of service to you. In these pages, you will find our general price list along with burial and cremation packages. We know it can be difficult to make decisions during such an emotional time, and we hope these may help you in your decision-making process.

While we always strive to take care of your loved one with the utmost dignity and respect, we want to make sure we are doing the same for you. It is our privilege to assist you in planning a meaningful and personalized service that you can remember and feel comforted by for years to come.

Thank you again for allowing us to be of service to you

Sincerely,

Mindy Miller-Moats
